Contra Vision announce the 4th International Wrap Artists™ Competition

Worldwide competition to find the best in see-through graphics
Win a fabulous limited edition glass sculpture and a cash prize.

Contra Vision is sponsoring an international competition to find the best see-through window graphics, advertisement, sign or other designs placed on the windows of any building, vehicle, POP, entrance doors or partitions.

All winners will receive a glass sculpture by an internationally recognised artist, the overall winner also receiving a cash prize.

All projects submitted must use Contra Vision® Perforated Window Film, Contra Vision® Impress™ (formally known as Contra Vision® ORS™) or Contra Vision® XR™ technologies.

The competition will be split into 5 categories:

1. Building Wraps
2. Point-of Purchase
3. Vehicle Wraps
4. Transit advertising
5. Innovative Uses

The Contra Vision® Wrap Artists™ competition is designed to generate interest by showcasing the best see-through graphics worldwide. It will be judged by leading figures from the world of print journalism, advertising and design, Val Hirst, Managing Editor of Sign Directions, Lisa Tomlinson, Joint Planning Director, McCann, and Sabrina Cant, internationally renowned glass sculptor.

The winning entries will also benefit from considerable press exposure in trade press and be featured on the Contra Vision website.

For entry forms and further details please visit the Contra Vision stand or visit www.contravision.com and follow the Wrap Artists™ link where entries can be submitted electronically.
